COACHES ASSOCIATION

How can you get access to on-going support once you leave your course?

Thank you for your commitment to developing as a qualified cricket coach.

The course that you are attending will play an important but small part of your overall education and development as a coach. It is back at the school or club where you will really begin to develop.

The ECB Coaches Association (ECB CA) is somewhere to turn to for advice and support. It provides access to the latest thinking and ideas as well as like-minded coaches working to help each other with the simplest of questions through to comprehensive insurance and legal support if you require it.

There is access to high quality discounted coaching kit and equipment to help you keep your sessions fresh and interesting, as well as the popular ECB CA three lions clothing range which only CA members can wear.

Should you want to refresh your memory of practices or just talk to other coaches or keep up to date with the hot topics and the latest thinking at the top of the game, the CA is there to support you on your coaching journey, helping you to be the best coach you can be.

Helping you help your players

Be part of the family of cricket coaches which supports you through your coaching life.

ECB Coaches Association offers a range of services and products which will help you to continue to develop, help you develop solutions, whilst allowing you to coach with confidence and peace of mind.
