- 8-a-side amateur Twenty20 league
- Each game is completed in about 2 hours, making it perfect to play on a weekday evening
- 20 overs are played, but with five balls per over instead of six
- Sides can only be bowled out when all eight players are dismissed – so 'Last Man Stands'
- ...and if that wasn't enough, you score 12 if you hit a six off the final ball of an innings!
- Progress from local to regional, national and world championships
